

U.S. District Court Conference for the Eastern District of Washington & Federal Bar Association CLE

Friday, October 19, 2007, 12:30 – 5:00 p.m., at the Davenport Hotel in Spokane

PROFESSOR THOMAS A MAUET, ACCLAIMED EXPERT ON TRIAL EVIDENCE AND ADVOCACY WILL PRESENT HIS CLE ON EVIDENCE, WITH SPECIAL FOCUS ON HEARSAY IN THE COURTROOM: "IS IT RELIABLE?"

Examine evidence from the most important point of view -- the judge's! Mauet's extensive teaching and writing background is balanced by years of courtroom experience. Mauet has served on the faculties of the George Washington University National Law Center, Harvard Law School Trial Advocacy Workshop, and on numerous regional and national faculties for the National Institute for Trial Advocacy, and he is the recipient of the 2005 Richard S. Jacobson Award for Excellence in Teaching Trial Advocacy from the Rosco Pound Institute.

Put his experience and unparalleled practical knowledge to work for you -- and your clients -- in your practice!! Mauet's highly-acclaimed, comprehensive, and entertaining program at this year's conference will focus on trial evidence, with special focus on presenting hearsay evidence. Mauet frames his presentation by using the "3R's": Is it Relevant? Is it Reliable? Is it Right? Revisit the law of evidence in a way that will help you win the evidentiary wars before, during and after trial.

JOHN MCKAY, FORMER U.S. ATTORNEY FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON WILL KEYNOTE THE CONFERENCE ON REFLECTIONS ON SERVICE WITH THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

John McKay, Sr. Vice President and General Counsel for Getty Images, served as the United States Attorney for the Western District of Washington from 2001 to 2006. In December, 2006, McKay was one of nine U.S. Attorneys asked to resign from the Department of Justice. McKay and his fellow U.S. Attorneys were subpoenaed to testify before Congress. Ultimately, the Attorney General of the United States has now resigned along with a number of his senior staff, and the President is nominating a new Attorney General. The past nine months have been filled with turmoil between the White House, the Department of Justice and the Congress.

McKay will share his candid reflections on public service and upon his role as a United States Attorney. John McKay is a very engaging speaker. This promises to be a very special and unique opportunity to visit with McKay and to learn more about the role of the U.S. Attorneys as presidential appointees in the prosecution of crime and the representation of the United States government.
